

A GLOBAL SNAPSHOT OF HOME-BASED WORKERS

Globally, 260 MILLION women and men are employed in home-based work, including 35 MILLION people in developed countries.

86%

DEVELOPING AND EMERGING COUNTRIES

DISTRIBUTION

- Europe – 6%
- Asia and the Pacific – 3%
- Americas – 5%
- Eastern Europe, Southern Europe and Central Asia – 2%
- Southern Asia – 26%
- East and South-Eastern Asia – 36%
- Southern Africa – <1%
- Rest of sub-Saharan Africa – 14%
- Latin America and the Caribbean – 6%
- Middle East and North Africa – 1%

Home-based workers produce goods or provide services from in or around their own home, including in a structure attached to their home.

HOME-BASED WORKERS IN TOTAL

	World	Developed Countries	Developing and Emerging Countries	Women	Men
	259.6	35.4	224.2	146.8	112.8
				17.3	18.0
				129.4	94.8

Global distribution of home-based workers by sex

HOME-BASED WORKERS BY URBAN AND RURAL LOCATION

	Rural	Urban
WOMEN	57%	43%
MEN	55%	45%

